

David Howard Graham (1842-1902)

David Howard <sup>i</sup> Graham was born April 25th 1842 to John Graham and Lydia Devor in Mifflin Township Cumberland County Pennsylvania. <sup>1</sup>

David was baptized by Reverend Reigel. <sup>2</sup>

He was 5' 8" tall with fair complexion, auburn colored hair, and hazel eyes. <sup>3</sup> David enlisted in the Army at Chambersburg on September 28th 1861. He was then mustered into federal service at Camp Wilkins, Pittsburgh on October 14th as a Private with Company D, 77th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry. David was detailed to the brigade blacksmith shop during December 1861. He was transferred to Company B, 2nd Battalion, Pioneer Brigade effective November 25th 1862, and was honorably discharged at Rome, Georgia on October 13th 1864 after three years of service.

Levi G. Graham, <sup>ii</sup>Huntingdon, Pa., gave oath he knew claimant prior to entry into service.

On September 28th 1861, David enlisted in the Civil War for a 3-year duty. He mustered-in October 14th 1861 at Camp Wilkins, located on Penn Street in Pittsburg Pennsylvania. The camp was located on the old Allegheny County Fairgrounds, Penn Street in the Lawrenceville section of the Pittsburg. The barracks at Camp Wilkins were rough wooden sheds originally built and used for the Allegheny County Fair. <sup>4</sup>

David's cousin William A. Graham was also at Camp Wilkins to be mustered-in. <sup>5</sup> They would be assigned to Company "D" of the 77th Pennsylvania Regiment of Volunteer Infantry. <sup>6</sup>

After training at Camp Wilkins, on December 11th 1861, David would be detached to a brigade in his trade as a blacksmith and smithy assigned to maintain regimental equipment. On November 25th 1862 he was detached to the Pioneer Brigade, Company "B", 2nd Battalion. The Pioneer Brigade was a newly formed Union Army Regiment of field engineers, intended to add to the building of Union forces required to invade the south. The regiment was put together by selecting twenty men from each company of every infantry regiment in the entire Union Army. The men were organized into pioneer or engineer corps.

Prior to the 1863 spring campaign, the Pioneer Brigade Regiment were in the Tennessee and Georgia region, preparing for the Chickamauga campaign. In mid September David while marching at the rear of his column with a wagon train of supplies near Crawfish Springs Georgia, Captain J. R. Fry of the Company ordered David back to his 77th Pennsylvania Regiment of Volunteer Infantry.

On September 19th 1863, at the start of the main battle if Chickamauga, the 77th Regiment began advancing on General Longstreet's Corps of the confederate army, when David was struck by a mini-ball on the left leg at the cap of the knee; displacing the knee cap to the side. He was removed from the battlefield by John Glazier, as Drum Major in Company K of the PA 77th, took David Graham off the field and saw his wound. David was sent to the field hospital located in Chattanooga, Tennessee, where Dr. McCauldlish dressed his wound, and forced the cap back into place. He was still recuperating in the hospital, on August 21st 1863

In January 1864, while performing his duties in Chattanooga Tennessee, David came down with catarrh, and was in the hospital when he was exposed to small pox. He was then transferred to another field hospital, which were only tents erected at a safe distance from the mail body of the army. He was finally released in May or June of 1864.

The Pioneer Brigade broken up July 8th 1864 and the men with less than one year to serve were returned to their original regiments. <sup>7</sup> David returned to Company "D" of the 77th Pennsylvania Regiment of Volunteer Infantry. His 3-year term commitment ended, and he was discharged October 13th 1864 at Snake Creek Gap, Rome in Floyd County Georgia. <sup>8</sup>

Shortly after returning home in the fall of 1864 he went out, and returned in the spring on 1865. For a short while, he lived and worked as a blacksmith in Shippensburg Cumberland County. It is almost certain while he lived here he would have visited his family members member's who lived in the area. His leg was often in pain from the wound he suffered in the civil war, and in late summer of 1865 he moved to New Germantown Perry County, where in the fall he met with Dr. Berry for his leg pain.

At the time D. Berry asked why David didn't apply for a pension, like the other soldiers, and that without the help of doctors from outside on New Germantown, all Dr. Berry could do is provide David with some liniment. Dr. Berry died in the spring of 1866, and David began to see Dr. F. A. Gutshall who had recently moved to New Germantown. <sup>9</sup>

- “...David Graham of Company D of the 77th Pennsylvania Volunteers attended a meeting of the Democratic Soldiers of Toboyne Township at the school house in New Germantown Saturday June 2nd 1866 and signed the constitution...”<sup>10</sup>

While living and working in the Perry County area, David met and married Elizabeth Ellen Gutshall on June 10th 1867.<sup>11</sup> Elizabeth was born July 16th 1845, and baptized by Reverend Harris.<sup>12</sup> Elizabeth was born to Solomon Gutshall and Margaret Rhinesmith in Madison Township Perry County Pennsylvania.<sup>13</sup> David had been a blacksmith, and later in his life a farmer.

Because of the wound he suffered during the Civil War; David applied for a pension on August 31st 1876. His claim was approved for $2 a month, retroactive to October 14th 1864, for his disability from the gunshot wound to his left knee and nasopharyngeal catarrh.<sup>14</sup>

Later that year in November 1900, David suffered his 2nd stroke. He was examined by the Lewistown board of examiners, who made note that David has been entirely helpless, and couldn't dress or undress himself, or couldn't feed or wait on himself. His condition was permanent, and there was no hope for betterment. <sup>18</sup>
