

William Graham (1873-1948)

William Graham was born September 12th 1873 ¹ to Samuel B. R. Culbertson ² and Mary Sophia Hildebrandt ³ in Shippensburg, Cumberland County ⁱ Pennsylvania.

- William Culbertson is my great grandfather, and his name “William” came from his grandfather, William Holmes Culbertson.
- In adulthood my great grandfather, took the Graham name from his mother, Mary Sophia Hildebrandt’s, 3rd husband: William Graham (1833-1908). Both men having the same first name is coincidental. ⁴
 - Mary Sophia Hildebrandt 1st married John Nearon on October 20th 1861. Mary and John had a daughter, Carrie Odessa Nearon, who was born March 31st 1865. John died in 1866. ⁵
 - On December 19th 1871 Mary married her 2nd husband, Samuel B. R. Culbertson. Samuel deserted Mary and her son, William. Samuel then married Julia Nonemaker about 1874, and left for Ohio. ⁶⁻⁷
 - Then on July 18th 1875 Mary S. Culbertson married William Graham (1833-1908), ⁸ who was previous married to Mary E. Oliver (1842-1874), who died August 24th 1874 ⁹ William was the 1st son born to John Graham (1810-1883), ¹⁰ and Lydia Devor in Perry County, Pennsylvania. ¹¹

In 1880 William Culbertson was identified as a step son of William Graham, living in Shippensburg, Cumberland County. With them were the children of William and his 1st wife Mary Oliver: Harry and Cora, and children with William’s 2nd wife, Mary Culbertson: Florence and Clara.

- Florence and Cora would be my great grandfather’s half-sisters.

By 1895 my G-Grandfather, William, was a twenty-two-year-old farm laborer living in the Shippensburg area. It was during this time he met twenty-five-year-old Dellia Catherine Killinger of Upper Strasburg Franklin County Pennsylvania. During this time Dellia and William lived within two miles of one another.

ⁱ On all of his children’s birth certificates, William indicated he was born in Cumberland County.

- Dellia Catherine Killinger was born January 16th 1870 ¹² to John Wesley Killinger and Susan Ethel Stake. ¹³ John Wesley Killinger was born May 19th 1843 in Southampton Township Franklin County. His wife Susan Stack was born August 1856.

During October of 1895 twenty-five-year-old Dellia became pregnant. ⁱⁱ On February 6th 1896, having made his mark “X”, and witnessed by E.M. Shade, a twenty-two-year-old William Graham married twenty-six-year-old Dellia. They were married at Dellia’s parent’s Upper Strasburg family home in Letterkenny Township, Franklin County, Pennsylvania. ¹⁴

Four months after William and Dellia married, William left Dellia for the Maryland-Pennsylvania state line to work in lumbering, and later would go back and live in Shippensburg; ¹⁵ one month before Dellia’s son was born.

- Norman Wesley Graham was born July 4th 1896 at the home of his grandparents in Upper Strasburg Franklin County Pennsylvania. ¹⁶ However, Norman was not William’s son. ¹⁷

In March 1898, John Killinger sold his farm. ¹⁸ He and his family, along with Dellia and their son Norman, went to the city of Baltimore in Maryland. While in Baltimore Dellia’s father worked in the textile industry as a laborer, and Dellia worked as a cotton spooler. The family lived at 136 David Avenue, Third Precinct- Sixteenth Ward Baltimore Maryland.

Sometime prior to 1900 William came back to the Shippensburg area of Pennsylvania.

- I have a photo of William, standing with a pipe fitting work crew, in front of Horton Hall located on the campus of present-day Shippensburg University. The photo appears to be taken around the time Horton was built in 1895. William is very young.

By 1900 Dellia and her family were still living in Baltimore, while William was living with Charles and Alice Hoch in Southampton Township Cumberland County Pennsylvania, a short distance outside Shippensburg.

- William lived with the Hock family, a farmer by occupation, and who had children named Alice C., and Florence M.; Two names William and Sadie would later use for their children, which may be just a coincidence. This census is pivotal in getting to know if the William who married Della is the same William who married Sadie. The Hoch’s daughter Ester Hoch-Clough, and her daughter Bertha Clough, and their son Bruce Hoch would later attend William’s funeral in 1948.

ⁱⁱ Dellia Killinger’s Pregnancy: William and Dellia Graham were married February 6th 1896, and then they had a son, Norman Wesley Graham, who was born July 4th 1896. The difference is almost five months.

While Dellia was still living in Baltimore, and before Dellia filed for divorce, William was expecting another child with his future 2nd wife, Sarah Greenawalt.

- Sometime prior to 1900 William came back to the Shippensburg area of Pennsylvania. I have a photo of William, standing with a pipe fitting work crew, in front of Horton Hall located on the campus of present-day Shippensburg University. The photo appears to be taken around the time Horton was built in 1895. William is very young.

The details on how William and Sarah met are not clear. Their 1st child, Dora, would be conceived in September 1900, and born on June 14th 1901 at Sarah's parent's home on present day Mogul Road, Mogul, Southampton Township Franklin County. ¹⁹

Dellia returns from Baltimore to Franklin County, and in the winter of 1901 filled divorces charges against William; desertion, drinking, and chasing women. The divorce hearing was held April 1902, and was finalized and decreed on July 11th 1902. ²⁰

Everyone involved with William and Dellia Graham's lives must have known about the divorce, Sarah's pregnancy and the birth of Dora, and her marriage to William. I even located a news article for when William and Sadie applied for the marriage license ²¹, and their wedding announcement. ²² When I read the divorce case and affidavits, I surprised me that Sadie's name was not mentioned.

- Dellia would later marry Grover Cleveland Hockenberry on June 15th 1911, and they lived in Hopewell Township Cumberland County Pennsylvania. ²³ Grover was from Doylesburg, Fannett Township Franklin County Pennsylvania. Dellia would be Grover's 2nd wife after his 1st wife died on December 16th 1909. Della and Grover had no children.
- Dellia died June 1963, while living in Shippensburg. She was laid to rest in the Ridge Church of the Brethren, Middle Spring, Newburg Area of Cumberland County Pennsylvania. ²⁴

William's and Sarah's marriage license indicated they were married in Shippensburg by the Justice of the Peace, A.F. Weaver, in Cumberland County on October 15th 1901.

On the marriage application, William indicated he lived in Shippensburg, and Sadie Greenawalt indicated she lived in Mongul, Franklin County, which is Southampton Township, about five miles west of Shippensburg. William listed his age as 27, and a farmer.

On the marriage application Sadie listed her age as 30 years old, and her occupation as domestic. William could not sign the marriage license, but and was written out, and it contained an “X” located in the midst of his name with a notation; his mark, witnessed to mark A.F. Weaver. Interestingly, on the application where it asks if the applicant was previously married, it was left blank. William was a polygamist for nine months.

This answers the question; why did William and Sarah wait to marry four months after Dora was born to get married. This brings new meaning to crossing the county line. We can only imagine the tension and social conflict this whole affair brought to the Greenawalt family, but then again Sarah wasn't new to having children out of wedlock.

After William and Sarah married, they moved into the Sarah's parent's home at Pine Hill, present day Mongul Hill Road, in Southampton Township, Franklin County, Pennsylvania.

Sarah (Sadie) Catherine Greenawalt was born May 6th 1865 to Henry Greenawalt and Jeanette Laughlin of Southampton Township, Franklin County, Pennsylvania.²⁵

- The Greenawalt and Laughlin families were early settlers of Cumberland and Franklin Counties. Henry's grandfather was Nicholas Greenawalt who entered the Revolutionary War while living in the Allentown area of Pennsylvania. After the war, Nicholas went to Shippensburg area where he married Mary Miller of Shippensburg on September 2nd 1793.²⁶
- Before Sadie met William, she was already raising a child from another relationship. Her son, Earl Britton Hostetter was born May 14th 1889 at Sarah's parent's home on present day Mogul Hill Road. located outside Mogul in Southampton Township, Franklin County. There is no record of a marriage between Sadie and a Mr. Hostetler. By 1910 Britton was listed as a Greenawalt. Britton is fondly remembered. He was William's step-son, and our grandfather's half-brother.²⁷

After William and Sadie married, they would live in the region of Franklin and Cumberland Counties; Orrstown, Roxbury, Mowersville, Shippensburg, and Newburg.

- There is one photo we have of Florence and Calvin, dated about 1911, which is about the time William and Sadie lived in Mowersville, Lurgan Township, Franklin County.

We have a 1914 Greenawalt family reunion photo, taken at the Greenawalt family home on Pine Hill. All of Henry's brothers and sisters, along with their children and grandchildren attended.

William's mother, Mary Graham, was living with William and Sadie near Mongul, Franklin County, when May died from the effects of a stroke and paralysis on February 3rd 1921.²⁸ Mary was laid to rest February 5th 1921²⁹ next to William Graham in the Spring Hill Cemetery, Section 4.2 Shippensburg Cumberland County.³⁰ FAG#131154297ⁱⁱⁱ

- Mary Graham's obituary referred to William as William Culbertson near Mongul.

According to the April 7th 1930 census for Southampton Twp., Franklin County PA, William and Sadie Graham lived in Pine Hill. William was 58 years old, the census indicated that he married at the age of 20 (about 1892), and that his parent's origins were Pennsylvania.

William and Sadie would remain living at the Greenawalt family home. It would be the center of family gatherings and visits. On Saturday November 7th 1931, Mrs. Eber Wenger and Mrs. Enos Wenger of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Earl Jones of Scotland,^{iv} Mr. and Mrs. Edward Martin and grandson, were guest of William and Sadie at Pine Hill.³¹

- Mrs. Enos Wenger is Sadie's younger sister, Annie Greenawalt, who married Enos Wenger. Their second born child was Eber Benjamin Wenger who married Minnie Matilda Kaiser (Mrs. Eber Wenger).
- Mr. and Mrs. Edward Martin also had dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kendig and children, of Mongul.

On Sunday November 8th 1931, Earl B. Greenawalt and son Freddie and Ray George, all of Camp Hill. Were guests, Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. William Graham.³²

- Earl is the son of Sadie, and William's step-son.
- Not sure who Ray George is.

On Sunday November 8th 1931, William and Sadie, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Martin and grandson, spent the evening with Mary Sollenberger and mother, Mrs. Katherine Greenawalt, near the Branch Mills.³³

- Mrs. Katherine Greenawalt is the wife of Henry Greenawalt's bother, John Greenawalt (1845-1924), who married Catherine Miller.³⁴ Mary E. Sollenberger is their daughter, who married Israel Sollenberger of the Scotland post office area of Greene Township, Franklin County.

^{iv} Scotland is a town in Franklin County.

There were a large number of these type of visits through the early 1900s to the Greenwalt-Graham home, at Pine Hill, from various Greenawalt members.

William and Sadie Graham continued to live at the Greenawalt family home on Pine Hill, on present day Mongul Hill Road outside Mogul in Southampton Township Cumberland County Pennsylvania. During the 1930s and 1940s they would live with Sadie's younger sister Annie Greenawalt-Wenger family.

Sadie passed away at the age of 81 years, 1 month, and 7 days old, in her home, at 9:00 in the morning of June 13th 1946.³⁵ She was laid to rest in the Lurgan Cemetery, next to her three daughters, Lurgan, Lurgan Township, Franklin County, Pennsylvania. FAG#: 95735285^v William continued to live in the Greenawalt family home, with Sadie's sister, Annie Wenger.

In 1947 William began to become ill, when he moved in with his son Calvin in Franklinton York County Pennsylvania.³⁶

- "...Mr. Graham near Shippensburg has been ill at the home of his son, Calvin, Franklinton..."

William would progressively get worse, and in January 1948, he went to live in the Franklin County Home located in Chambersburg Guilford Township County Pennsylvania. Six months later, on June 11th 1948, William passed away at 4:15 in the afternoon. He was 74 years, 8 months, and 29 days old.³⁷

Our grandfather Calvin signed William's death certificate, which indicated William was from R.R. #3 Shippensburg, Franklin County. The certificate didn't list his mother's and father's name; that William was a widower, not identifying his wife's name; and that William's birth date was unknown.

William's services were held June 15th 1948 at 2:00 P. M. at the M. Garfield Funeral Home in Shippensburg Pennsylvania. Services were conducted by Reverend Leroy Perry.³⁸ William was laid to rest on June 15th 1948 in the Lurgan Cemetery, next to his wife, Lurgan, Lurgan Township Franklin County Pennsylvania.³⁹ FAG#: 95735285^{vi}
