

Jacob Schleich (1833-1878)

Jacob Schleichⁱ was born about 1834 in Darmstadt located in the state of Hesse Germany.¹

About 1858 Jacob married Louisa Kissnerⁱⁱ in Germany. Louisa was born about 1835 to Peter and Rosina Kissner² in the Darmstadt district in the state of Hesse Germany. Her Kissler family immigrated to America about 1841, and settled in York County Pennsylvania. Louisa returned to Germany with her brother Henry Kissler, where she would marry Jacob.

- Rosine Kusner (Kissner) and her 6 year old daughter Louise lived in Haiz (Haitz)ⁱⁱⁱ in the state of Hesse Germany. They left home, and boarded the ship Gustav on October 23rd 1841 in Bremen Germany. Rosina and Louisa arrived at the ports of Baltimore on October 29th 1841.³

On May 13th 1859 24 year old Jacob Schleich, 24 year old Louisa Schleich, and 17 year old Heinrich Kissner arrived from Bremen Germany, on the ship Neptune, to the New York ports. Jacob's origin was identified as Haitz,^{iv} and Louisa's and Henry's origins were identified as Pennsylvania. Their destination was mostly un-readable. The letters appear to read as; T-?-?-s-u-l-a-n-a.⁴ I suspect it's a misspelling, or that the paper's age effects the forming of the letters. I think it is Pennsylvania.

In 1860, Jacob was 26 years old and Louisa was 25 when they lived in the post office area of York, in Spring Garden Township York County Pennsylvania. They lived in the same home as Peter and Rosina Kissler who were born about born about 1803 in Hesse Germany. Their son Henry was born in 1842 in Germany, and their daughter Mary was born 1844 in Pennsylvania.

Jacob worked as a laborer and a peddler. On July 1st 1863 Jacob was 30 years old, and married, when he signed up for the Civil War Army draft in Spring Garden Township York County Pennsylvania.⁵

Louisa then found herself in trouble, when on January 6th 1868 Thomas M. Belt of the Northern Central Railway Company charged Louisa Schleich, Jane Glapmeyer, Margaret Winfield, and Mary Johnson, all of Spring Garden, of stealing stone coal. Louisa Schleich and her brother-in-law John Scheider^v each tendered $200.00 to appear in court to answer the charge. The outcome was not recorded.⁶

ⁱ Mary was also known as Annie Mary, and her last name has been spelled Sleich, Schlick, Schleig, and Schlich, Schleg, Selack Selack-Selak-Shlike-Schlake-Sillick-Slack-Schleigh

ⁱⁱ Louisa's last name Kissler was determined from Emma Schleich death certificate as cited, and the 1869 equity case as cited, and the 1860 census record listed in the bibliography. Other spellings include; Kissler, Kisner, Kessler, Kirsinger, and Kisslinger.

ⁱⁱⁱ Haitz is in the Main-Kinzig District of Darmstadt in the state of Hessen Germany. Haitz is about 45 miles north of the city of Darmstadt.

^{iv} Haitz is in the Main-Kinzig District of Darmstadt in the state of Hessen Germany. Haitz is about 45 miles north of the city of Darmstadt.

^v Louisa's brother-in-law relationship comes from the 1869 equity case involving Louisa's sister Mary Scheider; Equity Cases (1853-1975); Plaintiff: Jacob Schleich; Defendants: Lorentz and Anna M. Weber; Case#: 001; Term: August; Year: 1869; Book: 001; Page: 253; York County Archives, 150 Pleasant Acres Rd, York, Pennsylvania 17402

On June 1st 1868 Jacob took the oath of allegiance and was naturalized as a citizen of the United States of America, denouncing the King of Prussia, in York County Pennsylvania. ⁷

Then on April 30th 1869, Jacob and Louisa filed a complaint in York County against Anna Mary Weber and her husband Lorentz Weber of fabricating a false will for Conrad Kissner, who had died April 5th 1869 in York County Pennsylvania. Conrad didn't have any real estate, but did have money and personal effects worth about $800.00. Jacob and Louisa also claimed that Louisa and her sister Mary Scheider were Conrad Kissner's only next of kin. Conrad is the uncle of Louisa and Mary. ⁸ Jacob and Louisa also demonstrated that the Webers filed the false will in Baltimore Maryland, claiming that Conrad was temporarily living there. The false will was then presented to probate without testimony and administrative letters.

Jacob and Louisa also claimed that the Webers were preparing to leave York County with Conrad's money and personal effects, and that Jacob and Louisa was due $400.00 for providing Conrad with lodging during his lifetime. An agreement was made, and the outcome was not recorded. ⁹

In 1870 the Schleich family lived in the post office area of Dallastown, York Township in York County Pennsylvania. Jacob was a peddler. Then on Saturday night, April 19th 1873, Jacob was accused of throwing stones at the door to a home belonging to Margaret Stemple in Spring Garden Township in York County Pennsylvania. The complaint was filed April 21st, and Jacob posted a $200.00 bond to appear at the court session scheduled for Monday, April 22nd 1873. Witnesses for the Commonwealth included: Margret Stemple, Philip Tangler, and Wetzel Selack. ^{vi} The court found that Jacob did destroy the door, and charged him with malicious mischief. An agreement was made, and the outcome was not recorded. ¹⁰

Jacob died, and by 1880 Louisa was a widow living with her daughters, Mary and Elizabeth, in Freystown York County Pennsylvania, just outside the city of York. They were living next door to Andrew Geharing, whose daughter was murdered by George Einsig, the son of Anton Einsig in 1879. Mary Schleich would marry John Henry Einzig in 1881.

We lost track of Louisa family after 1880, but she may have remarried to a Smith. ¹¹ Louisa died June 1892 and was laid to rest at the Prospect Hill cemetery in York Pennsylvania.
