

John Henry Einzigⁱ (1859-1939)

John Henry Einzig¹ was born December 12th 1859 to David Jacob Einzig² and Christianna Elizabeth Henriette Ross³ in the Freystown area of Spring Garden Township York County Pennsylvania.⁴

John was a brush maker, and lived with his parents, and extended Einzig families, in Freystownⁱⁱ located in Spring Garden Township York County Pennsylvania.

John married Mary Anna Schleichⁱⁱⁱ on January 11th 1881 at the Christ Lutheran Church in York, York County Pennsylvania. Anna was born in November 11th 1863 to Jacob Schleich⁵ and Louise Smith.^{iv-6}

The family would live in Freystown, which by 1900 became part of York Pennsylvania.

Annie Mary Schleich died at the York City Hospital January 20th 1914. She was laid to rest January 24th 1914 at the Prospect Hill cemetery.⁷ Her daughter, Louise Einsig, was the informant on the death certificate. FAG#:110099660^v

When his son Peter entered the Army in 1918, the family lived on Chestnut Street in York. But when Peter was being discharged from the Army in 1918, John and his family lived at 610 Mason Alley in York.

John died May 12th 1939 while living at 237 Pattison Street in York Pennsylvania. He was laid to rest May 15th 1939 at the Prospect Hill cemetery.⁸ His daughter, Louise Einsig, was the informant on the death certificate. FAG#:110099577^{vi}

According to the 1900 census record, Mary had ten children, and eight were still living. (Two children died prior to 1900) In the 1910 census Mary Einsig had 14 children and 11 were still living. (One child died prior to 1910) We also used John's 1939 Last Will and Testament.⁹

- i. Annie Mary Einzig (1881-1914). She married Harvey Adam Wintermyer.

ⁱ Einzig is spelled on John's marriage application and grave site headstone. His death certificate spells his name as Einsig. Other spellings of the name are Einsig, Aensick, and Eisig.

ⁱⁱ Freystown was part of Spring Garden Township in York County Pennsylvania. It was a flourishing community with a rich history just east of York city; sitting between Philadelphia and King Streets, extending from Broad Street to Sherman Street. Bull Frog Alley was the low swampy area around Fulton Street. Early settlement centered on what is now East Market Street around Ridge Avenue and Diehl's Mill Road (Sherman Street). Freystown - from colonial settlement to Gypsies, by June Lloyd, York County Heritage and Trust, 250 East Market Street, York Pennsylvania, March 15th 2013. Freystown became part of York city around 1900 (sources vary), but not without reluctance.

ⁱⁱⁱ Mary was also known as Annie Mary, and her last name has been spelled Sleich, Schlick, Schleig, and Schlich ^{iv} The name Smith is most likely an error, which was provide by Anna's daughter Louise Einzig.

Clarence J. Einsig was born June 1886 to John Henry Einzig and Mary Anna Schleich in Freystown located in Spring Garden Township York County Pennsylvania.

Clarence stood 5' 8 ^{1/4}", had brown eyes, with dark hair and complexion. When he was 21 years old, on June 30th 1907, he enlisted as a private in Company D of the 5th US Army Calvary in Slocum New York by Lieutenant DeWald.

In 1910 Clarence was assigned to the Schofield Barracks in Oahu Island in Honolulu Hawaii ²⁷ as an iron worker. Clarence was honorable discharged from the 5th US Army Calvary at Fort McDowell ^{ix} California on June 16th 1910.

After a brief period, when he was 25 years two months old, Clarence returned to Slocum New York, and on August 30th 1911 he re-enlisted as a Sergeant ²⁸ in Company I of the 8th US Army Calvary. Lieutenant Allen conducted Clarence's induction into service as a molder.

Clarence returned to Fort McDowell California for his duties, where he was honorable discharged on August 29th 1914. ²⁹

Clarence reenlisted, and by January 1920 Clarence was a single 33 year old Sergeant in the 8th US Army Calvary at Fort Bliss in the military district of El Paso County Texas. ³⁰ Clarence then married Violet

^{ix} Fort McDowell is located on Angel Island, which is the second largest island in the San Francisco Bay. The Union Army 1st established a Fort on the island during the Civil War to defend against Confederate actions. In the later 19th century, the army designated the entire island as "Fort McDowell". During the Spanish–American War the island served as a discharge depot for returning troops. It continued to serve as a transit station throughout the first half of the 20th century, with troops engaged in World War I embarking and returning there. During World War II the facilities continued its WW I mission, but had to quickly expand its facilities as a short term detention station for briefly housing Japanese, German and Italian immigrant residents of Hawaii, who were arrested as potential fifth columnists. As WW II continued the Fort was used to house Japanese and German prisoners of war. The The Army decommissioned the military post in 1947.... John Soennichsen (13 January 2008). Arthur L. Einsig (1894-1939)

Arthur L. Einsig was born February 14th 1894 ⁶¹ to John Henry Einzig and Mary Anna Schleich ⁶² in Freystown located in Spring Garden Township York County Pennsylvania.

Arthur lived with the family in the 1900 and 1910 census. He never married, and in 1930 Arthur had joined the Army and was serving as a private at Fort Oglethorpe in Catoosa County Georgia. When his brother Chester died on January 1939, Arthur was living in Denver. ⁶³

Arthur L. Einsig: March 20th 1939, word was received yesterday by Louise Einsig, 237 Pattison Street, of the death of her brother, Arthur L. Einsig, Saturday evening, in the Fitzsimmons Veterans' Hospital, Denver, Colorado. ^{xi}

^{xi} Fitzsimmons Veterans' Hospital was founded by the United States Army during World War I arising from the need to treat the large number of casualties from chemical weapons in Europe. Denver's reputation as a prime location for the treatment of tuberculosis led local citizens to lobby the Army on behalf of Denver as the site for the new hospital. Army Hospital 21, as it was first called, was formally

The deceased, formerly of this city, was the son of John H. Einsig, 237 Pattison Street. Death was caused by black malaria, contracted nine years ago during service in the Philippine Islands.

Surviving brothers and sisters, all of this city, are: Louise Einsig, Mrs. Austin Taylor, Mrs. Herman Witmer, Mrs. Kevin Swartz, Percy Einsig and Peter Einsig. Arrangements have been made by Henry Sleeper and Sons, funeral directors, for interment in Denver. ⁶⁴

Arthur lived in a rooming house at 1540 Larimer Street in Denver, where he was found dead by the proprietor, Leonard Jennings, Saturday morning March 18th 1939. According to the Dr. W. S. Shumskey, Arthur died from alcohol poisoning, but an autopsy was ordered by the Deputy Coroner, Gus Economy of the Denver General Hospital, to identify the exact cause of death. Arthur's body was taken care of by Hofmann's Mortuary. ⁶⁵

Arthur died of Lumbar Pneumonia ^{xii} Saturday morning March 18th 1939, and was laid to rest at the Crown Hill Cemetery, at 7777 West 29th Avenue, Wheat Ridge, ^{xiii} Jefferson County Colorado. ⁶⁶

Esther Vergie Einsig (1901-1932)

Esther Vergie Einsig was born December 18th 1901 to John Henry Einzig and Mary Anna Schleich in York Pennsylvania.⁷⁸

Ester married Albert Leon Heckert about 1919.^{xv}

- Albert was most likely still married to his 1st with Edith, and where Ester and Albert married is still a mystery. It was not in York or Dauphin Counties, and Adams, Cumberland, Lancaster, and Perry Counties are still being researched. Not to forget Maryland too.

^{xiv} Find-A-Grave, FAG, is a web site for cemetery memorials, <http://www.findagrave.com>

^{xv} Not sure where Ester and Albert married, checked Dauphin County and no marriage, checked York County and no marriage

Albert Leon Heckert ⁷⁹ was born June 24th 1895 ^{80 - xvi} to Howard Welsh Heckert and Elizabeth Agnes Doll in York, York County Pennsylvania. ⁸¹ Albert moved around a lot, and was married to four different women.

- 1st Wife: Albert was 21 years old when he and 23 year old Edith May Boone, ^{xvii} of York Pennsylvania, announced their intent to marry in the August 4th 1913 Fredrick Post newspaper in Fredrick Maryland. ⁸² He and Edith May Boone had two children together.
 - On May 28th 1919, Albert petitioned the York County Court for a divorce from Edith. On July 7th 1919 the case was added to the August 1919 York County Session, and by July 19th 1919, Judge Ross, issued the York Sheriff, Harvey Gross, to collect and record affidavits in the divorce case. The affidavits were filed August 25th 1919, and responses to the affidavits were filed October 6th 1919. The disposition on the case was filed December 12th 1919.
 - The divorce was finalized and decreed on March 29th 1920.
 - After the divorce, Edith and her two children left Pennsylvania to live in Illinois.
 - Edith Boone-Heckert died July 14th 1962 in Sterling Township in Whiteside County Illinois. She was laid to rest at the Fairmount Cemetery in the city of Polo, Ogle County Illinois. FAG#:88952301
- 2nd Wife: Albert's divorced was decreed in March 29th 1920 in York, York County Pennsylvania. Then on January 3rd 1920, before his divorce was decreed, Albert was living with Esther Einsig. The 1920 census record indicated they were married. The couple lived in Harrisburg Dauphin County Pennsylvania, which is about 22 miles north of York. Albert and Ester had three daughters.
- 3rd Wife: After Ester died in 1932 Albert married Purdon Arbella Shorts about 1933. Purdon was born about 1914 to John and Lucy Shorts in York Pennsylvania. By 1940 Albert and Purdon lived in Conewago Township York County Pennsylvania. Living with him was his son Murray, from his 1st marriage with Edith, and Albert's new son with Purdon; John L. Heckert. Albert worked as a cutter for the Hall Paper manufacturer.
- 4th Wife: We're not sure what happened to Purdon, but Albert then married Esther Zorick, and they 1st lived in Blandburg in Reade Township Cambria County Pennsylvania. Afterwards they moved about 50 miles south and lived at 1139 2nd Street in Windber, located in Paint Township in Somerset County Pennsylvania. ⁸³

^{xvi} Another birth date came from his FAG#:61002196; June 21st 1896

^{xvii} Edith's age in the news article is listed as 23, but she was born in 1885, her age is really 27.

- When Albert's mother Lillie died in 1945, Albert and his family lived in Baltimore Maryland.⁸⁴

Before Albert's divorced was decreed in March 29th 1920, on January 3rd 1920, Albert indicated he was married to Esther Vergie Einsig. The couple lived on Summit Street in Harrisburg Dauphin County Pennsylvania. Albert was a solicitor for the newspaper.

It was during this time that their first two children were born; Betty and Marilyn. While Albert worked for the Patriot and Evening News in Harrisburg, he was responsible for collecting subscription and advertisement payments from local business, merchants and other customers.

It was during the period between July and August 1928, while Albert was collecting payments in York city he kept the payments for his personal use, and never turned the money over to the Patriot and Evening News Company. The following people accounts for the $121.00 that Albert received from customers, and never turned over to the company. Albert was put on parole, and made restitution.⁸⁵

Evelyn Einsig (1902-1969)

Evelyn Einsig was born about 1902 to John Henry Einzig and Mary Anna Schleich in York Pennsylvania. Evelyn applied for her marriage license on April 26th 1922, and married Earl Nevin Swartz on April 29th 1922 in York Pennsylvania.¹⁰⁵

Earl Nevin Swartz was born October 2nd 1900 to George A. Swartz and Mary E. Billet¹⁰⁶ in Jacobus, York County Pennsylvania. Earl was baptized December 22nd 1900 at the Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jacobus.¹⁰⁷

Earl was a cabinet maker for a local furniture store, and after they married the family lived at 30 South Hartley Street in York Pennsylvania. In 1930 the families bought their home and live at 130 Manchester Street in York. By 1940 Earl was a foreman at the furniture company.

- George A. Swartz, in July of 1902, located his first business that of cabinetmaking, in a two story structure at the rear of his home, 719 West Philadelphia Street. Increased business necessitated larger working quarters and a thirty-foot addition, three stories high was built.
- After twenty years at the above location, Mr. Swartz acquired the present structure located on Roosevelt Avenue and P. R. R., and installed all modern machinery. The railroad facilities which were now available were indeed most helpful and convenient for shipping. Swartz Cabinet Works, as the business was known, specialized in designing and building store and restaurant fixtures and all types of cabinet work. Many of the apprentices who served under Mr. Swartz to learn the trade are now foremen in other woodworking shops.
- Due to Mr. Swartz's ill health, in 1945, the business was taken over by his son, E. Nevin Swartz, A. R. Parker and W. F. Mackin. They too have made a success in their business, that of toymaking. The sales territory is spread over many States. It is with this patronage that they go forward confidently under the name of York Toy & Specialty Co. ¹⁰⁸

When Evelyn's sister Louise Einsig died in 1951, Evelyn was given $100.00 ¹⁰⁹
