

John George Einsig Jr. (1864-1939)

John George Einzig Jr. was born July 8th 1864 to John George Einsig ¹ and Teresa Berger in the Freystown ¹ area of Spring Garden Township York County Pennsylvania. ²

John was 18 years old when he married 19 year old Elizabeth (Lizzie) Ritter ³ on April 6th 1882. ⁱⁱ

On July 30th 1898 Charles Geiger of Spring Garden Township made out a sworn statement against Samuel Matson and Elizabeth Einsig ⁴ on the charge of adultery against Samuel's wife, Annie Matson.

- Samuel Matson being a married man and having a wife in full life did have Carnal Knowledge of the body of one Elizabeth Einsig. On the 27th and 28th days of July 1898, and on various other times, then by did commit the crime of adultery. Contrary to an act of the assembly in such cases made and provided and further saith not.
- On August 1st 1898 Samuel posted $300.00 to appear at 9:00 A.M. on October 18th 1898 for indictment No. 97 of the York County Court August 1898 Session, in the case of the Commonwealth verse Samuel Matson on the charge of adultery.

- Samuel was found guilty, and a plea was obtained, reconciliation was rendered, and the witnesses were discharged on October 18th 1898. ⁵ ⁱ Freystown was a flourishing community with a rich history just east of York city, bounded approximately by Broad Street, King Street, Harrison Street and Philadelphia Street. Early settlement centered on what is now East Market Street around Ridge Avenue and Diehl's Mill Road (Sherman Street). Freystown - from colonial settlement to Gypsies, by June Lloyd, York County Heritage and Trust, 250 East Market Street, York Pennsylvania, March 15th 2013.

Freystown became part of York city around 1900 (sources vary), but not without reluctance.

ⁱⁱ The marriage date is assumed, but we are still looking for evidence on the date of the wedding.

In October 19th 1898 John Einsig obtained a lawyer and filed a petition for a divorce from Elizabeth Ritter-Einsig. The Petition for divorce was awarded to John based on the adultery case, and John's divorce was finalized on February 27th 1899. ⁶ These events may have clouded the birth of Edward B. Einsig, and who his real birth parents were.

On October 20th 1898 Elizabeth charged John with not providing, non maintenance, for her and her children, as ordered by the court. John paid $300.00, and was to continue paying $2.50 per week for child support. ⁷

In 1900 John was not living with Lizzie. John identified his marital status as married, and he was living with his parents at 26 Sherman Street in York Pennsylvania. Living with them was Andrew Einsig, who was also listed as being married.

In 1900 Lizzie was going by the name of Lizzie Ritter. She identified herself as being divorced. She and her Einsig children were living in the home of Samuel and Annie Matson at 219 Girard Avenue in York Pennsylvania.

Andrew's wife Ella was living with her mother, Mary New, at 598 East King Street in York. Ella continued to live with her mother and by 1910 she and her mother, and Ella's son James A., lived at the rear of 514 East King Street. James went by the name Andrew J. Einsig. Ella's husband Andrew was living a few blocks East with his father John Einsig Sr. at 204 south Sherman Street in York. ⁸

By 1910 John identified his marital status as a widower, and he was living at the York County Almshouse and House of Employment, which is where he lived until near his death, when he died in 1939. From 1910, up to and including his death certificate, John indicated that he was a widower. According to the marriage applications of his children, he was an invalid (Edward's app), living at the county Almshouse.

By 1910 Lizzie went by the name Matson, living with Samuel on Girard Avenue in York Pennsylvania. She also had three more children. One child Edward B., was identified as an Einsig in 1900, but in 1910 to 1940, went by the name Matson.

Elizabeth Ritter-Einsig-Matson was 67 years old when she died on November 17th 1931 while living at 734 South Edgar Street in York Pennsylvania. She was laid to rest November 20th at the Prospect Hill Cemetery in York. Charles A. Fackler of 734 South Edgar Street in York was the informant on her death certificate. ⁹ FAG#: 155092322

John was 75 years old, when he died November 1st 1939 at the York County Home in Springettsbury Township York County Pennsylvania. John was laid to rest on November 3rd at the Prospect Hill Cemetery. The superintendent of the York County Home, Perry F. Smell, was the informant on the death certificate.¹⁰ The death certificate also indicated John was a widower, and his wife was; late-Elizabeth Einsig. FAG#:153937547ⁱⁱⁱ

In the 1900 Lizzie made no indication to how many children she had. However, there were six children living with her in the Samuel and Annie Matson home. By 1910 Lizzie indicated she had ten children, and nine were still living.

- We believe Lizzie had six children with John Einsig, and four children with Samuel Matson. This accounts for Edward being Samuel's child, based on Samuel's adultery, John's divorce from Lizzie, and Edward going by the name Matson.

John and Lizzie had five children.

- i. John Edward Einsig Sr. (1882-1951).¹¹ He married Marguerite ("Maggie") Lauber.
- ii. Jacob Einsig (1884-1969).¹² He married Bernetta M. Wolford.

Ida Elizabeth Einsig (1886-1972)

Ida Elizabeth¹³ Einsig was born in July 13th 1886.¹⁴ Ida lived with her mother Lizzie at 323 Girard Avenue. In 1910 Ida and Norman were living with Alexander Matson and his family, the brother of Samuel Matson¹⁹ who married Ida's mother Lizzie Ritter-Einsig, at 532 Loucks Street in Spring Garden Township in York Pennsylvania.

^{iv} Anna Einsig birth and death dates needs verified, and her burial location is assumed based on her parents burial.

When Norman signed up for the WW I draft in 1918, he and his wife Ida were living at 401 North Queen Street in York Pennsylvania. At the time he indicated he was a drover for the York Sanitary Reduction Company. ²⁰ In 1920 they were still living at 401 North Queen Street in York, where Norman was still working for a Garbage Contractor.

By 1930 Norman and Ida had been divorced. We could not locate Ida, but Norman was living in the home of a divorcee, Bessie Buckingham, at 403 Newberry Street in York, where he was a laborer for a gas company.

By 1940 Ida was identified as being divorced and working as a house keeper in the home of a widower, George Fake, at 277 South Newberry Street in York.

Norman went to live with his sister, Annie Spangler-White at 332 Pershing Avenue in York. He would then live at the Pleasant Acres home in the rural area of Springettsbury Township York County Pennsylvania. There, at 69 years old, he died October 1st 1954. vii. Edward Benjamin ³³ Einsig was born May 7th 1898 ^{vi} to John Einsig and Elizabeth Ritter ³⁴ in York Pennsylvania.

- Edward always went by the name of Matson, and it may be due to circumstances surrounding the year that Edward was born. No other child born to John and Lizzie adopted the name Matson.
- Given the late 18th century norms, the educational level of John and Lizzie, Samuel Matson's and Lizzie's adultery cases, and Divorce. Edward may actually be the son of Edward Matson. Elizabeth would have been charged with fornication and bastardy; sex that produced a child.

When Edward signed up for the WW I draft in September 12th 1918, he lived with his mother, Mrs. Lizzie Matson, at 323 Gerard Avenue in York. Lizzie was identified as the person who would always know where Edward would be. ³⁵
