

Harry L. Hines (1848-1928)

Harry L. Hines (1848-1928)

Harry L. ⁱ Hines ⁱⁱ was born in August 1848 ¹⁻² to Henry Hines ³ and Elizabeth Pyle in the city of Lancaster, Lancaster County Pennsylvania. ⁴⁻⁵ During his youth Harry was also known as Henry, which may be related to his father's name.

Harry's father died in 1851, ⁶ and his mother remarried to Andrew Bear on July 25th 1853 at the Lancaster Moravian Church in Lancaster Pennsylvania. ⁷ The family lived in the North-East Ward area of Lancaster city. Mr. Bear died December 18th 1854 in Lancaster, ⁸ and Elizabeth married James C. Ewing on December 22nd 1859 in Lancaster Pennsylvania. ⁹

Henry and a friend George W. Gerber, who also lived in the same North-East Ward of Lancaster as Henry, "...were wayward boys, giving parents, neighbors and police a great deal of trouble..." ¹⁰

In September 1861 both boys left their home in Lancaster Pennsylvania, to Hatters North Carolina where they attached themselves to the 20th Indiana Infantry regiment. Both boys were taken prisoners with the 20th Indiana Regiment by rebel forces at Chieamaomak. ⁱⁱⁱ "...Gerber is fifteen years old, and was Colonel's "boy", Hines sixteen years old, acting as Captain's "boy"...Both can be well spared from this region, and we hope their experience in war, will make them wiser and better boys than they have heretofore been..." ¹¹

Harry Hines and George W. Gerber most likely joined the 20th Indiana Regiment while the regiment was in the Baltimore Maryland area.

- The 20th Indiana Volunteer Infantry Regiment was an infantry regiment that served in the Union Army during the American Civil War. The Regiment was officially raised on July 22, 1861 by William L. Brown, the first Colonel of the Regiment, in response to President Lincoln's call for volunteers.
- The Regiment was transferred from Indianapolis Indiana by train to Baltimore Maryland. Along the way, the Regiment busied itself by guarding various bridges along the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

ⁱ Harry Hines middle initial was identified as "L", in the Jane Hines-Taylor hand written and typed notes. All other records indicated his middle initial was "H", and his name was identified as both Henry and Harry. Given what we have learned of Harry's previous marriage, the "L" is most likely for Lawrence. Lawrence is the name of Harry's 2nd son with his 1st wife Sarah Ferrier. His other son is named John Hulbert Hines.

ⁱⁱ Hines Name Spelling Variation: Hintz - Hynes - Heinz - Hynds - Hinds - Heins - Heines - Himes

ⁱⁱⁱ Chieamaomak was also spelled as Chickamacomico, but is correctly spelled as Chicamacomico, which is located on the outer banks of North Carolina.

- From Baltimore the regiment was sent by steam ship to Fort Monroe, where they were camped until September 26, 1861. The regiment then moved from Fort Monroe to Fort Hatteras, recently taken from the Confederates during the Battle of Hatteras Inlet Batteries, on Hatteras Island in preparation for an assault against Confederate troops defending further up the inlet
- Regimental Quartermaster Isaac W. Hart and a small detail arrived with proper supplies on October 1. However, the gunboat carrying Hart and the supplies was attacked by three Confederate gunboats shortly after Hart began unloading the supplies that afternoon. Hart and 47 men were taken prisoner

Henry was released as a prisoner, and soon after returned to Lancaster Pennsylvania. On June 1st 1862 Harry's sister, Lucretia C. Hines, provided her consent as Henry's mother, for Henry to enlist into the Union Forces. Then on June 9th 14 years old Henry, enlisted into the 18th U.S. Infantry by Captain P. R. Forney in Lancaster Pennsylvania. At 14 years old, Henry was 4' 11 ½" tall with brown eyes, auburn hair, and light complexion when he enlisted for a three year service during the Civil War. ¹²

Henry was assigned as a drummer in the 3rd Battalion of Company "G", 18th U. S. Infantry. In November 1864 he was transferred to the 2nd Battalion of Company 'A', 18th U.S. Infantry Regiment. Harry was discharged June 9th 1865 at (can't read...Fort Kunt Mt. Plum). ¹³⁻¹⁴ During his time with Company A of the 18th U.S. regiment, Harry was a prisoner of war at the Confederate prison camp known as Libby prison ^{iv} for none months. ¹⁵

Soon after his return from service, in early 1867, Henry was indicted on charges of burglary and larceny. ¹⁶

- 1st Henry was accused of stealing two braces valuing $1.00, one saw valuing $2.00, and a screw driver valuing $.50 from Jacob Bear on March 20th 1867. Witnesses in the indictment were: Jacob Baer, Samuel Shroad, Peter Lutz, Honorable Gerald Sanderson, Lewis Ocho, and Jacob Zundaker.
- Then on May 15th 1867 at about 10:00 at night, Henry, who at the time was a laborer, along with John B. Lane were accused of breaking into the home of Bernard Brecht in Lancaster, and stealing a trunk worth $5.00. On August 9th 1867, the Lancaster District Attorney, held an inquest on the charge of burglary. Witnesses in the indictment were: Bernard Brecht, Samuel Shroad, Peter Lutz, and Jacob Zundaker.

^{iv} Libby Prison was a Confederate prison at Richmond, Virginia, during the American Civil War. It gained an infamous reputation for the overcrowded and harsh conditions under which officer prisoners from the Union Army were kept.

- Both indictments, one for larceny and the other for burglary, were held over the 1867 August Sessions. Then on May 17th 1867, for the burglary charge Henry was in default of the $5,000.00 bail, and for the larceny charge Henry was in default of the $300.00 bail. He was then committed to the Lancaster County Jail to await the August Quarter Court Sessions, scheduled for the third Monday in August 1867.
- Then on June 21st 1867 Henry's attorney filed a Writ of Habeas Corpus to the President of Judges Honorable H. G. Long, of the Lancaster County Court. On November 18th 1867 both Henry and John were found not guilty of their burglary charge, and Henry was also found not guilty for the larceny charge.

On March 24th 1870, at about 1:00 in the morning of March 15th, Henry and Frank S. Le Barron were accused of a burglary against Anna Rodgers. They took six German Silver Spoons valuing $.10 each, a silver watch valuing $10.00, two United States Government Bonds valuing $500.00, $100.00 in cash, Certificate of Deposit valuing $1,869.00, Certificate of Deposit valuing $1,600.00, another Certificate of Deposit valuing $1,869.00, Certificate of Deposit valuing $1,870.00, and Certificate of Deposit valuing $870.00.

On April 8th 1870 Henry's attorney filed for Habeas Corpus to the President of Judges Honorable H. G. Long, of the Lancaster County Court. On May 28th Henry and Frank were placed in the Lancaster County jail to wait for the April Quarter Court Sessions of Lancaster County.¹⁷

On April 27th 1870 Henry and Frank were tried and convicted on the crime. They were sentenced to ten years in the Lancaster County prison, ordered to return Anna Rodgers property or pay cost of restitution amounting to $1,130.60, and fined $100.00.

By July 2nd 1870, Harry was 21 years old, and was working as a tobacco stripper in the Lancaster County Prison. His mother Elizabeth was still living in the 4th ward of Lancaster, and her daughter Eliza A. Baer (b. 1855) was living with her.

Then on August 15th 1870, Harry's attorneys, A.W.J. Swift and Samuel H. Price petitioned the court; arguing that they attempted to visit Henry in the county prison with regards to "...another suit was entered into the Common Pleas Court of Lancaster County on August 9th 1870, No. 55 by Emily Hiester, the Administrator of the Estate of a Gerald Heistein (Jared K. Hiester), deceased, against the said Henry Hines being a foreign attachable (attaché)...", and on the second week of August, Harry's Attorney's were refused permission, by the under keepers of the prison, to consult with Harry on the Gerald Heistein suit. The under keepers claimed the refusal came from Levi Seuseuing, who at a later meeting with Harry's Attorney's indicated he had orders from outside parties not to permit any visitors with Harry Hines.

The Common Pleas claims on April 1st 1870 Henry Hines agreed to pay Jared Hiester $400.00 for the following:

- $200.00 for goods and other services provide by Mr. Hiester to HenryHines.
- $200.00 given by Mr. Hiester to Henry Hines.

Harry may have not served his full 10-year sentence in the Lancaster prison, and by 1879 ^v he married Sarah A. Ferrier ^{vi} in Lancaster Pennsylvania. Sarah was born February 11th 1861 ^{vii} to John Ferrier and Isabella Henry in Lancaster, Lancaster County Pennsylvania. ¹⁸

- Sarah's parents, John and Evelyn (Isabella) Ferrier, were sponsors of Sarah's son, Frederick's, baptism in Lancaster Pennsylvania on November 21st 1897. ¹⁹ Together Harry and Sarah had three sons; John H., Lawrence, and Harry F. Hines.

In 1880 Harry (married and b. 1849) lived at 357 North Queen Street in Lancaster with his widowed mother, Elizabeth Ewing, and Elizabeth's daughter, Lelia W. Baer (b. 1855), who was recorded as single. Harry was married and is occupation was a dealer in carriages. At this same time Harry's wife, Sallie (Sarah) Hines, was living with her son, Hulbert, at her parent's house at 208 West end of Mulberry Street in Lancaster, Lancaster County Pennsylvania.

Up to this time Harry worked mostly as a salesman of various item, and by 1885 Harry was working as a salesman for installment houses ^{viii} at 113 North 6th Street in Reading Berks County Pennsylvania. His residence was identified as 306 South 13th Street in Reading. ²⁰

By 1890, when Harry signed up for the Veteran Census, he was living at 306 South 13th Street in Reading, Berks County Pennsylvania. In the census record Harry identified his Civil War service with Company A of the U.S. 18th Infantry. Then in 1891 Harry was still working for Installment Houses at 635 Washington Street in Reading, and still living at 306 South 13th Street.

On July 15th 1890 ^{ix} Harry submitted a pension claim for his Civil War Service. ²¹

By 1894 he was still living at 306 South 13th Street. Harry was working as a broker for installment houses at 635 Washington Street in Reading. Living with him was his son John H. ²²

^v Harry and Sarah 1879 marriage came from the 1900 Federal census record cited in the bibliography.

^{vi} Sarah Ferrier's marriage with Harry Hines comes from the son's various records, and her grave site with Harry's parents; Henry and Elizabeth Hines as cited.

^{vii} Sarah's birth date, February 1861 was also recorded in the 1900 census record, cited in the bibliography.

^{viii} Installment houses were the term for mortgaged houses.

^{ix} Harry also filed another claim on August 30th 1910, and his Civil War pension card was later updated on February 23rd 1918, to reflect his WW I era Naval service from November 1917 to November 1918.

When his mother, Elizabeth, died in 1895 while living in Lancaster Pennsylvania, Harry was still living in Reading at 306 South 13th Street. ²³

In 1900 Harry and Sarah owned a farm in Amity Township, Berks County Pennsylvania. Living with them is their son, Lawrence Hines who was born in January 1889. Harry was at this time a farmer, and had a mortgage on his farm.

Sometime after 1900, Harry had a relationship with Hattie Thomas, and they had a son Paul who was born 1903 in East Mauch Chuck, ^x Carbon County Pennsylvania. In 1900 Hattie lived with her parents in East Mauch Chuck, which is about 52 miles north of the Reading area of Amity Township Berks County where Harry and Sarah lived. How Harry and Hattie met is still unknown.

Hattie was pregnant with her 2nd son, when 58-year-old Harry married 25-year-old Harriet (Hattie) B. Thomas on August 12th 1907 in Manhattan New York, New York. ²⁴

- When Harry and Hattie married, she was pregnant with her second son, Harry, who was born December 13th 1907. At the time the family lived at 138 South Ruby Street in Philadelphia, and Harry was identified as being a salesman.
- The fact that Paul was born in 1903, and Harry and Hattie didn't marry until 1907, might suggest Harry's 1st wife, Sarah, was still living.
- Sarah Hines was 45 years old when she died December 14th 1906 from apoplexy at the St. Joseph Hospital in Lancaster, Lancaster County Pennsylvania. She was laid to rest December 17th with her husband's parents, in the Hines family plot: # 549, ²⁵ of the Lancaster Cemetery. ^{xi} Her son, J. Hulbert Hines, of Myerstown in Lebanon County Pennsylvania, was the informant on her death certificate. ²⁶ FAG#: 42835457 ^{xii}

Hattie was born June 6th 1882 in the Gracedale ^{xiii} area of Mountain Top, Wright Township in Luzerne County Pennsylvania to Daniel Stewart Thomas ²⁷ and Martha Jane Kishbaugh. ²⁸ When Hattie's son was born in 1903, Hattie lived with her parents in East Mauch Chunk, Carbon County Pennsylvania.

^x East Mauch Chunk is known in 2017 as Jim Thorp Pennsylvania.

^{xi} The Lancaster Cemetery is located at 205 East Lemon Street, Lancaster, Lancaster County Pennsylvania.

^{xii} Find-A-Grave, FAG, is a web site for cemetery memorials, <http://www.findagrave.com>

^{xiii} Harriet's marriage application with Harry Hines identified her place of birth as Gracedale, which is about 1 mile East of Mountain Top.

In April 1910 we learn Harry was previously married, and he was working for himself as a Commercial Traveler of Pianos. The family was living in Division 1 of the 34th Ward, between North Conestoga and Race Street, Philadelphia Pennsylvania. The remaining census record was inconclusive; especially the column indicating civil war service, which had a “3” entered in the column. ^{xiv} On August 30th 1910 ^{xv} Harry submitted a second pension claim for his Civil War Service.²⁹

On November 16th 1917 Harry went to the Navy Enrolling Office in Baltimore Maryland, where he enlisted as a ship’s cook with the rank of Seaman First Class. This date correlates with the ten years Harry and Hattie lived together, 1907 to 1917, and his deserting Hattie, which were both identified on their 1923 divorce decree filed in Arlington County Virginia. ³⁰

- At the time of his enlistment Harry’s age was recorded as 55 years 3 months old, and his address was 414 Porter Street in Easton, Northampton County, Pennsylvania. This is the same address his son, Fredrick Lawrence Hines, lived in 1917. ³¹ Harry most likely didn’t live with his son, but merely used his son’s address for the application for his naval application.

From November 22nd 1917 to August 2nd 1918 Harry was assigned to the Naval Coast Guard Defense Reserves, ³² serving under Headquarters 5th Naval District in Norfolk Virginia. Under this command Harry served with the Navy Rifle Range in Virginia Beach, Virginia, from November 27th 1917 to May 16th 1918; back to the 5th headquarters from May 16th to the 17th 1918; on board the USS Norlina, a receiving ship docked at the Norfolk Virginia port; and the Naval Hospital at Norfolk August 2nd to November 11th 1918. Harry was discharged April 16th 1919 at Norfolk. ³³

- During March, 1917, as the United States was reaching a final decision to enter World War I, the Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, under provisions of the Act of August 29, 1916, established the Naval Reserve Force, to be composed of six classes: including the Naval Coast Defense Reserve.

Harry’s Civil War Pension card was updated on February 23rd 1918 to reflect his WW I era Naval service from November 1917 to November 1918.

^{xiv} It should of had a UA for Union Army, UN for Union Navy, CA for Confederate Army, CN for Confederate Navy, or leave it blank. Other people listed had numbers, “1”, “7”, “8”, and so on. The number “3” means nothing.

^{xv} Harry also filed another claim on July 15th 1890, and his Civil War pension card was later updated on February 23rd 1918, to reflect his WW I era Naval service from November 1917 to November 1918.

Harry's Civil War pension index card also indicated he was a Cook in the U. S. Army Quarter Master Corp.³⁴ Harry's work with the US Army Quartermaster Corp^{xvi} may have occurred when he lived at Fort Meyer in Arlington Virginia, which was identified on his 1923 divorce decree with Hattie.³⁵

In 1920 Hattie was living in Philadelphia, Paul was living with Hattie's parents in East Mauch Chunk, Carbon County Pennsylvania, and their other sons, Harry and Tom, were living in the Western House for Poor Children, in the 24th Ward of Philadelphia Pennsylvania.

In 1921, when Hattie's son Paul graduated from trade school in the Philadelphia area, he took a job in Jeannette, Penn Township, Westmorland County Pennsylvania, near the border with Somerset County.

It was on March 3rd 1923 in Arlington, Arlington County Virginia, where Harry and Hattie Hines received their divorce decree. Harry was 73 years old, retired, and living at Fort Myer^{xvii} in Arlington Virginia. Hattie B. Hines was living at 2346 Turner Street in Philadelphia Pennsylvania. The divorce decree indicated Harry and Hattie lived together for ten years, married for sixteen years, and the cause of the divorce was desertion.^{36_37}

- The divorce record indicated that Harry and Hattie were married for sixteen years (August 12th 1907³⁸ to March 3rd 1923 equals sixteen years).
- The ten years they lived together may have been 1907 to 1917.³⁹
 - Their son Paul was born in December 1903 and their son Harry in December 1907.

Where Harry lived between 1918 and 1923, and 1923 to his death in 1928 isn't exactly known. His 1917-1918 Naval service was in the Norfolk Virginia area. In 1923, when Harry divorced Hattie, he was living in Arlington Virginia.

On March 22nd 1923, 74-year-old, Harry married 73-year-old (b.1850) Mrs. Margaret B. Smith in St. Johns County Florida by H. H. Faven, Notary Public. At the time Harry indicated he was living in Rosslyn Virginia, which is about 4 miles west of Arlington Virginia. Margaret indicated she was from Knoxville Tennessee.

When Harry died in 1928 he was living in Washington DC.

^{xvi} In 1912, Congress consolidated the former Subsistence, Pay, and Quartermaster Departments to create the Quartermaster Corps.

^{xvii} Fort Myer is the previous name used for a U.S. Army post next to Arlington National Cemetery in Arlington County, Virginia, and across the Potomac River from Washington, D.C.

Sometime after 1923 Hattie, and her sons Tom and Harry, joined Paul in Jeannette, Penn Township Westmorland County, near the border with Somerset County.

From the marriage application of Hattie's son, Paul Hines's , marriage application dated 1926, Harry's residence was unknown, and that Harry was retired, but we know from Harry's death certificate that in 1926 Harry lived at the U. S. Solders Home in Washington D. C.

Hattie's 2nd marriage on January 25th 1926 was to Jacob A. Landis of Berlin located in Brothers Valley, Somerset County, Pennsylvania. Jacob was born December 23rd 1877 in Pennsylvania to John M. Landis of Brothers Valley Township and Abigail Miller of Middlecreek Township, Somerset County Pennsylvania.⁴⁰⁻⁴¹

- Jacob was previously married to Sarah (Sadie) May Snyder on April 1st 1903 in Somerset County. Sadie was born February 22nd 1880 to John S. and Rosa B. Snyder.⁴²⁻⁴³ Sadie died December 17th 1923 in Berlin Somerset County Pennsylvania.⁴⁴ Jacob and Sadie Landis had a son William S. Landis who was born 1904 in Pennsylvania, and a daughter named Grace Landis who was born in 1908 in Pennsylvania.
- Jacob Landis died April 1st 1935 in York Pennsylvania. He was laid to rest in Section J, Lot 195 of the Mt. Rose Cemetery located in York Pennsylvania.⁴⁵ FAG#: 126044190
