 that the only record of the date of the birth of her children was made by George Carey a copy of which is written at the top of the foregoing page and is marked "A" - That she is unable to account for the discrepancy in the statement as to the date of birth of her children in any other way than it was from a misunderstanding or mistake in taking down her statements by her attorney -

That the reason why the name of Emily Thomas is omitted from the last statement - is that the said Emily died about two years ago and before the passage of the act giving increased Pension for which reason <sup>was</sup> was advised by her attorney that her name be omitted -

She also says that she has not married since the death of her husband, nor abandoned the support of any of their children under sixteen years of age, nor permitted any one for whom increase is claimed to be adopted by any person or persons and that they are the only legitimate
