Philip Pyle was born about 1810 to Philip Pyle and Margaret Wilkerson in Lancaster Pennsylvania. He lived with his family in 1810, 1820, and 1830, but not in 1840.

Philip married Mary about 1834. Mary was born about 1812 in Pennsylvania.

In 1850 the family lived next door to Philip's parents in the North West Ward Lancaster. BY 1860 Philip was a hotel keeper and lived in the South East Ward of Lancaster. In 1870 Philip's nephew Fredrick Pyle (b. 1857), and niece Louisa L. Pyle (b. 1852) lived with them.

Philip Pyle's will was proved on August 26th 1870. ¹⁷ Philip's wife, Mary, was bequeathed the family home at the corner of East Orange and Sherman Streets in Lancaster Pennsylvania, adjoining the property of Susan Gemperling on the first and public school property on the North bounded by Sherman Street.

The following line was written in the will but was crossed out, which probably occurred when the will was amended in 1879; "...I bequeathed to my nephew Fredrick Pyle, son of my brother Fredrick Pyle. Son of my brother Fredrick I give and bequeath out of the proceeds of said sale the sum of five hundred dollars..." The will also bequeathed the balance of proceeds from the sale of Philip's real estate to the children of "...my sister Margaret who is married to Henry Markley..." nephews Daniel H. Markley, Joseph W. Markley, David Markley, and niece Rebecca Markley.

The 1870 will was then amended on August 26th 1879. The will indicated Fredrick Pyle was bequeathed $500.00 out of the proceeds of Philip's real estate, and David and Rebecca Markley were each bequeathed 1/4th of the balance of proceeds from the sale of Philip's real estate. The amendment also indicated that Philipⁱⁱ Pyle, David Markley, and Rebecca Markley were "...now deceased..." Their shares went to nephews Daniel H. and Joseph W. Markley. Then on June 30th and July 1st and 3rd 1882, the witnesses of the August 26th 1870 will, Henry Ransing, Fredrick E. Shroads, D. P. Rosenmiller Jr., and George F. Springer, testified to the validity of the will, and of Philip's wife Mary as the executor of the will. The witnesses also testified that Mary died before "...said testatrix..."ⁱⁱⁱ Letters of administration were granted on July 3rd 1882 to Joseph W. Markley of Lancaster.

Philip died at 9:30 in the afternoon on June 6th 1882.¹⁸

Mary died after May 3rd 1879, when Philip's will was amended, and before her husband died, in June 1882.¹⁹
